

AOLE	Subject	Year	Assessment
Humanities	Geography	8	Effects of the Montserrat eruption

Progression Table
Progression Indicator	Knowledge	Skills
Excelling	Detailed description and explanation of the effects of the eruption, specific detailed examples are used to help develop the answers. Key terms are applied throughout. Specific volcanic hazards are described and linked to each effect. All explanations are categorised into economic, social or environmental factors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All geographical words are used appropriately and within sentences. A variety of connectives have been applied appropriately to help develop points. Fluent writing with good use of sentences and paragraphs that are formed in a logical structure. Examples are applied correctly and incorporated seamlessly into your answer.
Advancing	Detailed description and explanation of the effects of the eruption, some examples are used to help develop the answers. Key terms are used. Specific volcanic hazards are linked to each effect. Explanations are categorised into economic, social or environmental factors. Some examples are used.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All geographical words are used appropriately and within sentences. Connectives have been used to help develop points. Good use of sentences that are formed in a logical structure within paragraphs. Examples are applied to your answer.
Securing	Describes and explains the effects of the eruption. Some explanations are categorised into economic, social or environmental factors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Most geographical words are used well. Some connectives have been used. Good use of sentences that are formed in a logical structure. Paragraphs are used.
Beginning	Simple description of the effects.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some geographical words are used. Sentences with some form of logical structure.

